*O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

Convocation

This joyous yet solemn event is bound by traditions that have evolved over centuries. It is a continuum with a formal beginning and end. By being present here today, you have indicated your interest in being part of this academic tradition. Graduating students and their guests are therefore expected to remain in their seats until this formal ceremony has been completed in its entirety—until the Chancellor of the University has officially closed Convocation and the stage party and graduates have recessed.

from the President

To our graduates: Congratulations!
We are delighted to celebrate graduates from Winter 2024.

The entire university community – myself included – has been inspired by the resilience, leadership, and compassion you have shown throughout your degree and certificate programs.

Your experience at Saint Mary's has prepared you well for this moment. You have met people from all over the world, broadening your perspectives and intercultural understanding. Your professors have helped you study the past to change the future and solve problems using innovation and creativity. You have grown, personally and intellectually, and developed the skills to help you succeed, no matter what path you choose to pursue in the future. You have explored the complexities of a World without limits – and engaged in the opportunities and possibilities to overcome limits, whether they are social, cultural, economic, environmental, scientific, technical or driven by the business or political structures around us.

This convocation program will be a reminder for years to come that the Class of Winter 2024 did not stumble in the face of adversity but instead stepped forward with courage and determination.

As you begin this new chapter in your lives, with lessons learned and eyes to the future as graduates of Saint Mary's, please know that you are, and always will be, a part of the Santamarian community. Together, we will continue to build a World without limits!

Congratulations on your achievements!

The Ceremonial Mace

The ceremonial mace, carried by the Marshal of Convocation, was presented to Saint Mary's University in 1980. It symbolizes the University's authority to grant degrees and is a gift from Maritime Command in honour of alumni killed in both world wars. The mace also recognizes serving members of the Canadian Armed Forces who have been students at Saint Mary's.

The mace is made of oak with a cast brass crown and brass plates carrying traditional ceremonial engravings; the plates represent the contributions to Saint Mary's by the Jesuit Fathers, the Christian Brothers of Ireland, the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Halifax-Yarmouth, the LaSalle Christian Brothers, the Lay Teachers and the Armed Forces.

University Motto

AGE QUOD AGIS

means to 'do what you do.' This phrase exhorts us to focus on our work, to be in the moment and devote our fullest attention to the task at hand. It is a call for dedication, a focus on duty and perseverance, a statement of process. It is a proclamation of the importance of disciplining ourselves to our studies, to our scientific, artistic, cultural, commercial and athletic pursuits. It is a call to action to act in the world, to shoulder responsibility, to champion social justice, environmental justice and ethical values.

Flags on the Stage

The flags which you see displayed on the stage

for Convocation are from the countries representing our graduating students. The globalization of the Saint Mary's University community is a feature of justifiable pride which contributes markedly to the growth and understanding of both Canadian and non-Canadian students.

Included in the University's permanent collection of flags is one from the International Year of the Disabled signifying the University's commitment to people with disabilities. The Mi'kmaq flag is an important part of this collection in recognition of their First Nation's Status. The University's Bicentennial flag was made a part of our permanent collection in 2002.

Academic Hoods

Graduates and members of the academic procession are attired in the basic elements of formal academic dress, which follow general guidelines established at England's Oxford and Cambridge Universities. It consists of the academic robe, hood and mortar board (at Saint Mary's, the latter is limited to Master's graduates).

The academic hood symbolizes the degree into which each graduate has been admitted, its outer edge trimmed with a colour to indicate a particular Faculty and degree: white symbolizes Arts; gold, Science; grey, Commerce, and green for Environmental Studies. Bachelor-level hoods are lined with satin in the colours of the institution granting the degree. Hence at Saint Mary's, they are maroon satin with a white chevron. The Master's hood is lined with maroon satin only, giving it added distinction.

Degrees and Diplomas

Awarded with Distinctions

At Saint Mary's University in the general undergraduate degree and diploma programs, academic distinctions are awarded to successful candidates on the basis of the following cumulative grade point averages of all courses taken at Saint Mary's University. There are no distinctions awarded in graduate and certificate programs.

BA, BES, BComm, &amp; BSc	Grade Point Av.	Diploma in Engineering
summa cum laude	4.00 - 4.30	with greatest distinction
magna cum laude	3.85 - 3.99	with great distinction
cum laude	3.70 - 3.84	with distinction

The President's Hall of Academic Excellence, located in the main hallway of the McNally Building, directly outside the President's Office, displays the names of all students who earned one of these distinctions. The Hall also includes the names of students who won academic medals at graduation.

President's Award for Excellence in Research

Dr. Luigi Gallo

As an astrophysicist in high-profile international research projects, Dr. Luigi Gallo has been involved in major missions with the Japan Aerospace Exploration Agency (JAXA), NASA, and the Canadian Space Agency, and has received more than $10-million in funding for projects such as the Astro-H Metrology System.

Dr. Gallo's research interests include supermassive black holes, or active galactic nuclei, and X-rays emitted from the innermost regions of black hole environments; accretion powered systems of all scales (e.g. cataclysmic variables, X-ray binaries, AGN); and the definition and realization of future X-ray missions. His work has led to discoveries that have altered scientists' understanding of black holes, their formation, growth, behaviour, and their influence on the evolution of galaxies.

After a stint in industry, Dr. Gallo returned to academia and completed his PhD at the prestigious Max Planck Institute for Extraterrestrial Physics in Germany, and then joined JAXA before becoming a faculty member at Saint Mary's University in 2007.

A prolific publisher, Dr. Gallo is credited with more than 80 successful observing proposals and more than 150 refereed publications written as part of his own research on black holes and instrumentation, work with peers, and as a supervisor to many of his students and postdocs. He has also published work with large collaborations, including papers by the Hitomi Collaboration, which he made significant contributions to, as well as other publications on future missions.

As a professor, Dr. Gallo is focused on supporting the next generation of researchers, co-writing papers with undergraduate and graduate students who have gone on to higher level studies and research of their own. He contributes significant time and knowledge to the advancement of his field through committee work and outreach initiatives and as a member of the Canadian Astronomical Society.

The President's Award for Excellence in Research honours continued exceptional contributions to research and scholarship conducted by a full-time Saint Mary's University faculty member. More information can be found at smu.ca/fgsr/presidents-award.

Congratulations Dr. Luigi Gallo!

Honorary Degree Recipients

Ailan Fu, Doctor of Letters, honoris causa

Dr. Fu has an exceptional record as an academic leader and administrator. In addition to her academic appointments as Professor of Linguistics at Central University for Nationalities, and then at BNUZ, Dr. Fu has led global engagement for BNUZ and the partnership with Saint Mary's University. This has resulted in the exchange of students, faculty, and staff between our universities over the past two decades. Dr. Fu is a well recognized scholar in linguistics and has held visiting appointments at SMU, Hong Kong Baptist University, and the University of Texas.

Dr. Fu's service to community includes her work as a scholar and academic administrator at BNUZ but extends also locally to her work as counsellor on the city of Zhuhai Municipal council. Her work for the city of Zhuhai led to the creation of the sister-city relationship between Zhuhai and the Halifax Regional Municipality. Her focus on international education and connection demonstrates Dr. Fu's commitment to intercultural learning, a key value for Saint Mary's University.

Dr. Fu has made an extraordinary contribution to Saint Mary's University, primarily through SMU/BNUZ partnership for the past two decades. This partnership has included Five 2 + 2 programs, which has allowed over 1000 BNUZ students to study at SMU. This included the first, and currently only, Arts degree (2 + 2) between Canadian and Chinese universities. Dr. Fu has focuses also on intercultural learning and understanding through staff and faculty exchange, including through summer institutes and her involvement in the International Masters of Teaching English Program. In partnership with Mingyuan Zhang (Dean of the school of Chinese at BNUZ), Dr. Fu has provided a supportive and innovative academic pathway between our two universities.

Mingyuan Zhang, Doctor of Letters, honoris causa

Dr. Zhang has an exceptional record as a scholar of Chinese language culture and folklore. Holding a Doctorate in Chinese folklore from Beijing Normal University, Beijing, Dr. Zhang has had a distinguished academic career as a Professor of Chinese Language and Literature at Renmin University, as Dean of Arts at Hong Kong Shue Yan University and most recently, and since 2004, as Dean of the School of Chinese at BNUZ.

Particularly in his role as Dean of the School of Chinese, Dr. Zhang has established the study of Chinese language and culture, including in partnership with Saint Mary's University. His quiet, behind-the-scenes, leadership has provided a supportive environment for many Saint Mary's students, staff and faculty participating in the partnership between SMU and BNUZ. His service to the values of Saint Mary's, and particularly to intercultural learning, make him worthy of an honorary degree.

Dr. Zhang has been involved in the partnership between BNUZ and SMU for many years. Participating the design of academic curriculum for Saint Mary's students at BNUZ and partnering with Saint Mary's and Acadia University for many summer-institute programs. It was his design work on curriculum that led to the development of the 2 + 2 Arts program between SMU and BNUZ in 2015 (still the only Arts 2 + 2 program between Canadian and Chinese Universities). In addition to his leadership of student programming, Dr. Zhang was instrumental in hosting the 2017 summer institute for Saint Mary's faculty and staff in Zhuhai.

David Lane, Doctor of Science, honoris causa

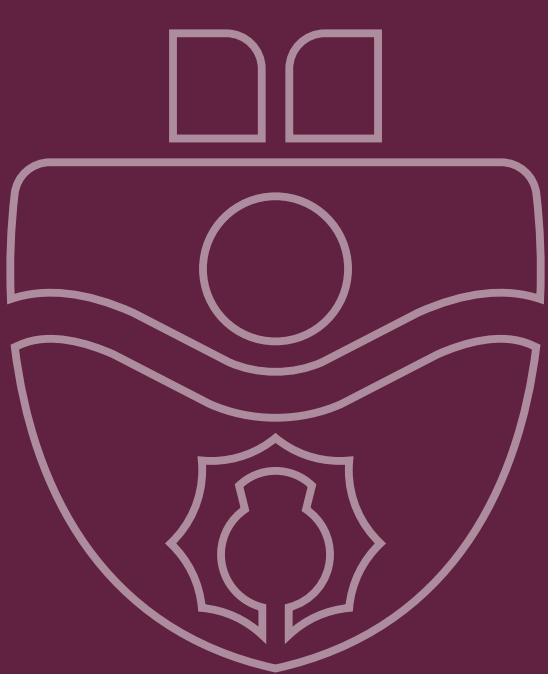

Tens of thousands of Saint Mary's University students and members of the public have experienced the wonders of the night sky at the Burke-Gaffney Observatory. On every clear weekend, the Observatory receives dozens of visitors, and thousands more from across the world access it remotely to reach for the sky. This phenomenon is due to the efforts of one man, David Lane, who, for nearly thirty years, has been quietly inspiring generations of children, parents, students, and teachers by transporting them across the universe.

From 1992 until his retirement, Mr. Lane was employed as the Astronomy Technician and System Administrator in the Astronomy & Physics Department. His outreach efforts are extraordinary, and the university has benefited from the international exposure. David single-handedly automated the Burke Gaffney Observatory and made it available to the world through Twitter and Facebook. He has been a member of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada (RASC) since the 1980s and served as president of the National Chapter and the Halifax Chapter. He has won countless awards for service to Canadians including the Discovery Center Science Champion, Chant Medal, Service Award, President's Award, Ken Chilton Prize and the Fellowship Award for long-serving members of the RASC.

David Lane's contributions to teaching and learning are significant. At Saint Mary's, he created astronomy exercises, ran tutorials in classes, and tutored students. He created The Earth Centered Universe (ECU), which is an easy-to-use planetarium and telescope-control program, allowing institutes the ability to operate their own educational astronomy platforms for teaching astronomy.

David Lane's contribution to professional astronomy is impressive; he has more than 100 professional publications in the field of variable stars and telescope operations. Several of the refereed publications are co-authored with students and professors at SMU. He was recognized by the International Astronomy Union for the co-discovery of three supernovae and has an asteroid named after him!

Sheldon Anthony Bhawanie (MTEI)

Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research

Born and raised in Trinidad and Tobago, Sheldon Bhawanie came to Saint Mary's University to further his education at the Sobey School of Business after researching the top business schools in Atlantic Canada. He spent time on campus as a student and working in different capacities.

Sheldon values his in-class experiences and has learnt a great deal not only from his research and professors but also from his classmates who bring a true international flavour to the classroom. He has experienced the value of understanding the many cultures that make up Nova Scotia's melting pot. Always gregarious, Sheldon interacted with graduate and undergraduate students while playing intra-mural soccer and volunteering as a mentor at the Arthur L. Irving Entrepreneurship Centre in the Sobey's Inspiration Hub. He regularly volunteers as a youth soccer coach with a club in Halifax.

Sheldon takes much pride in his roots in Trinidad and Tobago and feels proud to represent his country in Canada. His affinity for Saint Mary's University makes him a perfect representative and ambassador for the university and he plans to continue making a positive impact on students in the future.

Celina Cynara Jelisa Rolle (BA)

Faculty of Arts and Faculty of Science

Hailing from the beautiful islands of The Bahamas, Celina Cynara Jelisa Rolle came to Saint Mary's University on a mission, determined that she was not leaving empty-handed. Throughout her time at university, Celina took six classes each semester, testing her tenacity and drive.

Despite the challenges, she remained determined to achieve her goals and ultimately graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Global Development Studies, cum laude. While only Celina's name appears on the degree, she acknowledges that her God, family and friends played a critical role in supporting her every step of the way and encouraging her to finish strong.

With this degree, Celina is pursuing becoming a part of the team that establishes The Bahamas as a developed country rather than a developing one. The passion and drive she possesses are her superpowers, along with kindness. She will utilize these qualities to do her part in building a better future and a better now for The Bahamas.

Alumni

The Saint Mary's University Alumni Association

welcomes more than 300 students into its global family this winter.

The Alumni Honour Guard, which includes members of our diverse alumni community, proudly leads students to and from their convocation ceremony in the academic procession, signifying their transition from student to alumni.

During the ceremony, each graduate will receive an alumni pin from the Saint Mary's University Alumni Association, a tradition dating back more than 30 years. Graduates are encouraged to wear their pins with pride.

Alumni are ambassadors and champions for the university within their community and around the world. We share pride in your success. As part of a powerful network of more than 54,000 alumni worldwide, your impact is felt in your community and beyond. Philanthropic investments from our alumni, whether it be your time, talent or treasure, will pave the way for the next generation of Santamarians to succeed.

Stay connected through events, webinars and services. Connect with us online at smu.ca/alumni, on social media @SMUAlumniHFX or email alumni@smu.ca for more information.
